BADBIR TRAINING

We can provide over the phone and online training to staff who are new to BADBIR.

To access the training please contact:
badbir@manchester.ac.uk

Training includes;

- Aim of BADBIR
- Study Design
- The database and a 'walk' through entering data
- Adverse Events
- BADBIR site file

David Lieberman and Jess Scott were asked to provide feedback to the training they recently received:

"In short, I was satisfied with the training provided by Danielle. In fact, my dealings with all the BADBIR team has been very good so far. I appreciate the quick turn around if I have a question and your understanding with my trying to address a large number of queries."

David Lieberman, Clinical Research Assistant, Barts Health NHS Trust

"I started on BADBIR in Jan 2015, the BADBIR training was really helpful to my new research role. The training took 40 minutes, it was good to actually talk through the study over the phone rather than just an email, and since the training I have called the BADBIR coordinating centre whenever I have needed ongoing advice"

Jess Scott, Research Nurse, York
